When to contact?

Our COVID officers are involved in assisting with the COVID-19 risk assessments, for managing the centre track & trace information, for associated staff training, for monitoring processes are followed, to obtain feedback from all stakeholders for the centre, and to provide feedback into the risk assessment and report any issues. You may want to contact our COVID officers to discuss:

- Information on safety measures at the centre
- Suggestions to improved procedures
- To notify us of your club/team COVID officer – this may now be a welfare officer for your club
- To notify us that you or someone you live with is clinically vulnerable (see the personal and household risk poster)
- To raise concerns, suggestions, or breaches of procedures
